JOINT STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the Court's February 28, 2019 Order (Dkt. No. 41), CentiMark Corporation, by its undersigned counsel, and based solely on email communications among the parties, files this Joint Status Report on behalf of the parties:

On February 27, 2019, the Court granted Plaintiff CentiMark an indefinite amount of time to respond to defendant BluSky's motion to dismiss, as the parties indicated to the Court that they continued to work amicably to resolve this matter. (Dkt. No. 41). The Court also ordered the parties to provide a status report within 60 days of its Order. (Id.) Since the Court's February 27, 2019 Order, the parties have engaged in discussions, and taken steps toward resolution, including a forensic analysis to identify CentiMark documents that might be on defendant Osborne's BluSky computer, and forensic analysis of defendant Osborne's BluSky computer.

Defendant Calvin has communicated willingness to continue the current efforts toward and agreed-upon resolution, but defendants BluSky, Hammett and Osborne have communicated that they no longer wish to participate in informal discovery. At this point, the case has not been resolved.

Defendants Osborne and Calvin owe responses to plaintiff CentiMark's complaint, and plaintiff CentiMark owes a response to defendant BluSky's motion to dismiss. The parties have not agreed on proposed due dates for documents owed to the Court, but will diligently work to resolve this issue in the upcoming week, more than three weeks before scheduled Initial Case Management Conference on May 29, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Brian K. Matise
